

TWO TRUNKS OF WAINWRIGHT'S LOOT OPENED

Scores of Pieces of Gold-plate and Silverware Recovered in Providence.

ANTIQUES ARE FOUND.

One Trunk Was Filled with Ceremonial Robes and Fine Old Laces.

Two trunks filled with thousands of dollars' worth of silverware, gold plate and rare ceremonial robes, were today recovered in Providence, R. I., after other consignments of the loot of Thomas J. Wainwright, who is in the Tombs awaiting extradition on the charge of having cleaned out the family treasure vault and the safe deposit box of Dr. Joseph Pinault, millionaire surgeon of Minneapolis, Minn. Wainwright, who was heavily armed and prepared to fight to the death at the time of his sensational arrest last Monday night, has since been perfectly willing to assist the police in recovering all that is left of the $150,000 worth of securities, jewelry and antiques that he stole.

It was from Wainwright himself that the location of the trunks opened to-day was learned. Three trunks were found at the three rooms he occupied in this city. They contained silverware, the actual value of which has not yet been estimated. Besides he had two safe deposit boxes in uptown banks. One of these was empty, but in the other was $50,000 worth of bonds that he had not dared to negotiate. Altogether, including the value of the goods in the trunks at Providence, more than half the value of the entire stealings has been recovered.

The Two Trunks Opened.
Wainwright said that he had sent the trunks to Providence to be cared for by his brother, who lives there. He said that his brother knew nothing of their contents or of the burglary. They were guarded by Providence police until today, when Detective Hatfield went there and opened them. One trunk, containing rare clothing, was on Westminister street, and the other, filled with silver and gold plate, was at the Lenox Hotel, near Westminister street. Wainwright's brother was not arrested, since the police believe he was ignorant of the burglary. The contents of the trunk of clothing is itemized as follows: Very old lace, christening robes and linen, that had been in the family for generations; one pearl head-dress, a silk skirt, one exquisitely beaded silk evening dress and evening dress of blue broadcloth silk, three muffs, one astrachan hat, two India shawls, three Paisley shawls, all very old.

Filled with Fine Plate.
The trunk of silver and gold plate contains the following articles: One case of twenty-four solid silver knives, three solid silver portknives, two solid silver covered vegetable dishes, one large silver tureen, one solid silver berry spoon, twenty-eight solid gold-handled sea knives, eleven solid gold-handled forks, twelve solid gold teaspoons, twelve solid gold dessert spoons, one solid gold fish and cover, three solid silver vegetable dishes and covers, three solid silver bottle-stands, one gold-headed cane, eighteen solid silver knife-rests, three solid silver trays, nineteen ivory-handled knives, eight gold-handled dessert knives, twelve solid silver dinner plates, three large silver salvers, one silver solid silver forks, nineteen solid silver table spoons, nine solid silver oyster forks, two small silver spoons, one mustard spoon, one solid silver sugar, one sugar tong, two solid silver fish forks, half dozen large silver spoons and one single open glass, gold mounted.

Wainwright, who has confessed to the looting of the surgeon's home, is regarded as one of the cleverest crooks in the business, and has already served nineteen years in Massachusetts and Connecticut prisons.

Had Forged Letters.

He carefully planned the burglary of Dr. Pinault's home. He went there well recommended with forged letters and secured the position of caretaker while the surgeon and his family passed the winter in the South. He worked leisurely and cleaned out the family vault, finding among other things the key to Dr. Pinault's safe deposit box. Wainwright forced a box in the same bank and after becoming familiar with the attendants and no difficulty in opening the surgeon's box. To dispose of the negotiable securities he opened a brokerage office in Minneapolis, sold what he could and then with many trunks of loot came East.

DERELICT MAY BE THE CENTENNIAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Officers of the Northwest Steamship Company's steamer Pennsylvania, arriving from New York, report that ten days from this port the masthead and part of the deck planking of a wrecked steamer were sighted drifting before the wind.

The Charles Nelson Company's steamer Centennial is now twenty days overdue from Hakodate, and shipping men are speculating as to the chances of the sunken hull and masthead at sea belonging to that vessel. Fifty-nine persons were aboard the Centennial, which was left Japan for this port, and steamers arriving from the Orient and other ports have brought no word of her.

JERE DUNN COMING TO DIE IN NEW YORK

Veteran Sport, Near His End, Expresses Wish to "Cash In" in This City.

New York is so good to live in that Jere Dunn is coming here to die. The veteran sporting man, so close to life's finish line that he can almost reach across it, has made his plans to journey from San Francisco to this city in order that he may cash in with Broadway sounding him farewell.

Evil days have come upon Jere Dunn. The weight of seventy-two years and the shadow of the murder of Jimmy Elliott cloud his days and nights and cancer causes him physical agony. He has spent the winter in the mild climate of California, but Broadway calls him.

"Jere is coming back," said Mike Meahan, of Boston, today. "I had a letter from him a few days ago. He is somewhere in California and wants to see the old town before he goes to rest what's coming to him."

"He told me to let him know as soon as the weather got mild and I have sent him word that Spring seems to be on the job. I guess he'll be along now as soon as he can persuade the Southern Pacific of the Santa Fe that he can stand the trip across the country."

If Jere Dunn lives to get back to New York there will be a reunion of sporting men who have not long to live. A year ago all the old-time cronies of his prosperity and activity are in New York to-day.

"Jere said Jimmy Walker a short time ago, 'wants to die where there is something doing.'"

TAX-DODGERS' BILL MOVES IN ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, April 5.—The Assembly Taxation Committee to-day reported favorably the Saxe bill taxing personal property in this State of non-residents.

The bill, which has passed the Senate in its amended form to meet the objections of Gov. Higgins, is now on the Assembly second reading calendar.

BIG ADVERTISING SHOW.

All kinds of devices for increasing business to be shown.

A practical demonstration of the great values of newspaper advertising will be the principal feature of the Advertising Show which will be held in Madison Square Garden from May 3 to May 9.

Last fall the same management of the present enterprise held a similar one in Chicago that was visited by 200,000 persons.

At the show there will be exhibited everything in the advertising line that has been devised by the most brilliant minds for the development of business.

Buyers and the makers of every kind of catchy advertising will be brought together.

Everyone should take a tonic in the Spring; their systems require it. The blood has become thick and sluggish with the accumulations left in the system from breathing the impure air of closed rooms and overheated buildings; the heavy, rich foods of the Winter season, etc., and when this vital fluid is aroused and stirred to quicker action by the return of warmer weather, these waste matters and poisons are distributed through the circulation, to act depressingly and injuriously on the system. The blood being in this unnatural and impure condition is unable to furnish the body with the proper amount of nourishment and strength, and the system suffers from debility, weakness, nervousness, indigestion, loss of appetite, and other symptoms of a disordered blood circulation.

The depleted system must have assistance; it needs a tonic and it is important that the proper one be selected. When the health is in this disordered condition it is not safe to take unknown concoctions, sarsaparillas, etc., because they usually contain potash or other strong mineral ingredients which act unfavorably and often dangerously on the run-down, weakened system, at a time when it needs gentle and natural stimulation to throw off the impurities and recuperate its lost energy. A great deal is being said these days about living close to nature, and it is more applicable to medicines, perhaps, than anything else. Nature has provided a remedy for all the ills of mankind, and medicines made from nature's vegetation act better in every way than the mineral mixtures which are the products of the chemist's shop.

The greatest of all tonics is S. S. S. It is made entirely of the roots, herbs and barks of the forests and fields, selected for their purifying and health restoring qualities; and as it does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form it is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, one that is absolutely safe for young or old. S. S. S. acts directly on the blood, ridding it of any and all impurities and poisons, and restoring the lost properties of rich, nutritive strength so that it is enabled to supply to the system the healthful, invigorating energy needed to pass this trying season of the year. Its action is the most prompt, pleasant and satisfactory of all tonics and blood purifiers, and those who are beginning to feel the need of a medicine to fortify the system against the unpleasant conditions that come with Spring, will do well to commence its use at once. It will not only tone up the system, but will remove any taint or humor that may be in the blood and thus prevent an outbreak of Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum or other rash or eruption of the skin. S. S. S. restores lost energy, relieves that all worn out, tired feeling, quiets the nerves, helps the appetite and imparts a relish for food, and in every way adds tone and vigor to the entire system, and prepares it for the depressing Summer months that are to follow.

In selecting your tonic for this year do not be led into believing that others are "just as good," but get S. S. S., THE GREATEST OF ALL TONICS, and one that for more than forty years has been recognized as such. It is Nature's tonic, absolutely pure and safe, and reliable in every way. S. S. S. is for sale at all first-class drug stores.

MRS. DOWIE MADE ILL BY ZION TROUBLES.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The physical collapse of Mrs. John Alexander Dowie to-day followed rumors that the party in favor of the "First Apostle" had grown so strong that a serious contest between the two factions in Zion City might follow the return of her husband. Friends of Mrs. Dowie say she expressed a belief that bloodshed might result.

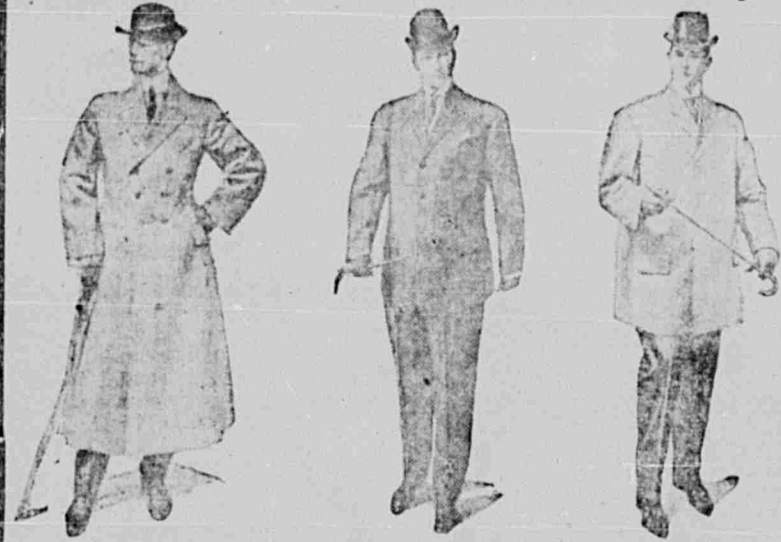

To-day she swooned at her home and it was feared for a time that she had suffered a stroke of paralysis. It was reported later that she was suffering from nervous prostration.

The Appellate Court in a decision to-day deprived Dowie of $50,000, which had been left to him by Frederick Burton, a New Zealander.

Great Sale of Teas & Coffees

Direct Importations To 161 JAMES BUTLER Grocery Stores.

The housekeepers of Greater New York are giving our new importations of fine TEAS and COFFEES a rousing reception. All our old patrons are more than pleased. The superb quality at such low prices has opened the eyes of hosts of new friends to the great economies of our profit-sharing system of retailing at wholesale.

Direct importations in very large quantities enable us to bring the finest TEAS and COFFEES to all the JAMES BUTLER STORES at a cost which permits us to sell them for HALF what is charged for SIMILAR FINE GRADES by the ordinary retailer who must buy through the usual trade channels.

This is the reason our TEAS and COFFEES cannot be surpassed elsewhere even at double our prices.

The Stamp-Coupon offers are so popular with housekeepers that we give them their choice of these three up to next Saturday night:
